

American Revolution

Research Guide

Your class is learning about the American Revolution. Your job is to study your topic and teach your class everything you have learned.

Requirements:

- A 5 paragraph essay
- A bibliography (you must have 3 sources)
- Notes and Outline (Noodle Tools)
- A Prezi presentation about your topic

General Topic: Famous Battles of the Revolution

❖ Battle of Lexington and Concord

- When and where was the battle fought? What were the conditions-weather, terrain etc.? Who was involved in the battle and how did both sides prepare? How did it end? Who won? What impact did this battle have on the revolution?

❖ Battle of Yorktown

- When and where was the battle fought? What were the conditions-weather, terrain etc.? Who was involved in the battle and how did both sides prepare? How did it end? Who won? What impact did this battle have on the revolution?

❖ Valley Forge

- What happened during the winter of 1777-1778? Describe the conditions they faced. What did they do there and what impact did this have on the revolution?

❖ A Soldiers Life

- What were fortifications? Why was the building of fortifications important to the colonists? What was the life like for a soldier? What did they wear? What weapons did they use? What role did women and children play in the fight for freedom?