

American Revolution

Research Guide

Your class is learning about the American Revolution. Your job is to study your topic and teach your class everything you have learned.

Requirements:

- A 5 paragraph essay
- A bibliography (you must have 3 sources)
- Notes and Outline (Noodle Tools)
- A Prezi presentation about your topic

General Topic: The Revolution Ends

❖ Declaration of Independence

- Who wrote the Declaration of Independence? Why was he chosen for this task? What does the Declaration of Independence explain? Why is it such an important document? What other facts do you think your class should know about the Declaration of Independence?

❖ Treaty of Paris

- Explain how the American Revolution officially came to an end. Explain the terms of the agreement that was reached between the British and the colonists. What other facts should so you think your class should know about the Treaty of Paris.

❖ Constitutional Convention

- What was the big argument? What was the big compromise? Who was involved in the Constitutional Convention? How was it organized? How did the constitution become ratified? What other facts do you think your class should know about the Constitutional Convention?

❖ The Constitution

- How does the Constitution set up our national government? What are the three parts? Explain each part and how they work together. What are some other facts do you think your class should know about the Constitution.